

THE GAZETTE.

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 22, 1892.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section generally fair Saturday, possibly light showers this evening, southerly winds.

DEATH OF EX-MAYOR SMITH.—Ex-Mayor Courtland H. Smith died at four o'clock this evening at his home in this city. He went to Washington to-day with his sister to do a little shopping, and while there, being attacked by a sudden pain, took an extract of morphine, which was the cause of his death. He was accustomed to the use of the drug. He was unconscious when he reached home, and, though Drs. O'Brien, Brown and Smith rendered all possible aid, remained in that condition until his death. The deceased was in his forty-second year. He had represented his ward in the City Council, and had been mayor of the city, in both of which positions he served the city well and faithfully. He was genial, whole-souled and generous to a fault, and leaves a large number of grief-stricken friends, not only at home, but abroad. The whole city sympathizes sincerely with his family in this their hour of sorrow.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. R. F. Bridenbecker, of Sandoval, Ill., daughter of the late William Finch, formerly of Fauquier county, is in the city on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. John W. Hurst, of Fauquier county, is visiting relatives here. The Baltimore Sun, in noticing the appointment of Mr. J. S. B. Thompson as general superintendent of all that part of the R. & D. road north of Salisbury, N. C., says: "This is a well-deserved promotion. Mr. Thompson, who is a nephew of the late Hon. John S. Barbour, entered the employ of the old Virginia Midland Railroad in a subordinate capacity, and by intelligence and industry has worked his way up until he is now regarded as one of the most capable railroad men in the South."

Mr. G. Wm. Ramsay has returned from Atlantic City.

Mrs. Estelle C. DePatron left yesterday for New York city, where she will spend a few days with her relatives, after which she will go to Delaware Water Gap, Pa., for the summer.

The many friends of Mrs. Robert J. Thomas, of this city, will regret to learn that she continues dangerously ill in Baltimore.

Mr. W. C. Mason, who on the 6th inst. married Miss Olive Crook in this city, was taken ill with typhoid fever while on his wedding trip, and is now extremely ill at his home in Washington. A telegram received here to-day states that he is not expected to live.

Mrs. Eldridge and family are spending the summer at Culpeper.

Secretary Johnson, of the Wholesale Grocers' Association of Virginia, was in the city to-day and had interviews with a number of the grocers here in reference to the establishment of a uniform price for groceries.

Rev. Father Cutler, pastor of St. Mary's Church, yesterday visited Mr. Francis Murphy, who is dangerously ill at his home in Fairfax county.

Mr. L. E. Triplett, of Fairfax, is quite sick.

Capt. and Mrs. G. A. Mushbach will leave here to-morrow for Cape May.

SERENADERS SCATTERED.—Last night about the hour graveyards are said to yawn a company of young men composing what is known as the "Glee Club" planted themselves on the front steps of the old City Hotel and made attempts to sing snatches of several old songs. An irritable lodger in the top story (evidently with no music in his soul) who had been caused by the heat to toss and fro in vain endeavors to close his eyes in sleep, endured the entrancing strains for some time, until, his patience becoming threadbare, he made a vain hunt for his bootjack or some other missile with which to end the serenade. Finally, becoming desperate, he concluded to scatter the crowd in the traditional or conventional manner, and in a few seconds the serenade was brought to an abrupt termination, the members of the party scattering toward each point of the compass in a bedraggled condition and sadly in need of disinfectants. To-day the more mention of the incident to any member of the disinfectant party calls for a fight, and the serenaders are at a loss for cuss words by which to ventilate themselves toward the unappreciative lodger.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was warm and clear till about 12 o'clock when it became cloudy. There was one lodger but no prisoners at the station house.

The following cases were disposed of at the Mayor's office to-day:

Sam Medley, colored, assault on his wife, $5 and costs.

Two carriage drivers, for violating the police regulations at the local depot, were required to pay the costs of the warrant.

The list of those who have taken out dog licenses has been placed in the hands of the police.

The non-resident owners of a number of vehicles now engaged in working on the streets were notified that they must take out licenses.

Y. M. S. L. EXCURSION.—The fourth annual excursion of the Lyceum to River View yesterday was in every respect the best the organization has yet given. The many attractions at River View were enjoyed by both young and old, and every one of the thirteen hundred present returned home delighted. The game of base ball between the Y. M. S. L. team was won by the former by a score of 2 to 8, the Lyceum team showing a lack of practice. The short stop of the Lyceum nine was presented after the game with a handsome bouquet (?). The attendance from Washington was very large.

HUNAWAY.—A team belonging to Mr. Dean of Springfield, Fairfax county, ran away near the corner of Fairfax and King streets this morning, and proceeding at a rapid rate up the last named street soon cleared that thoroughfare. Near the corner of Pitt the runaway team struck the meal wagon belonging to Mr. J. W. Brown and turned it completely over. The driver was knocked from his seat and covered with bags of meal, but was not hurt. The owner of the runaway team was taken to the station house, but on giving a satisfactory explanation of the accident was released.

Complaint is made of the tardiness of the officers on duty at the station house in answering telephone calls.

REGATTA AT RIVER VIEW.—The international regatta at River View on Sunday promises to eclipse all aquatic events in this section. Edward Hanlan and Wallace Ross will contest in a three-mile single sculling race for a purse of $500, and Wm. O'Connor and Geo. Hosmer in a three-mile single sculling race for the same amount. The course will consist of three turns which will present the entire race to the spectators at River View. Four steamers—the Samuel J. Potts, Columbia, Mary Washington and Pilot Bay have been engaged to convey the crowds that are expected to visit the popular resort Sunday.

BASEBALL.—There has been considerable rivalry between the baseball clubs of St. Mary's county, Md., and the Kin-sale Club, of Westmoreland county, Va., and on Wednesday last two games were played at Kinsale and the St. Mary's club was victorious in each. Another game will be played by these clubs at Leonardtown on Tuesday next for a purse of $100, and it is said large wagers have been laid by the admirers of the respective clubs, the odds being in favor of the Marylanders.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.—Mr. Charles E. Coe, of Washington, was found under a tree on Duke street, between Fayette and Henry, between 12 and 1 o'clock to-day, apparently very ill. He was taken to a house in the neighborhood and Dr. Quackenbush summoned, when it was discovered that he had been paralyzed on the left side. He was taken to the Infirmary and his relatives in Washington notified of his condition.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge J. K. M. Norton presiding.—Continuation of yesterday's proceedings.—M. R. O'Sullivan vs. Daniel O'Sullivan; jury and verdict of $750 for plaintiff.

Conrad Horst vs. Catharine Horst; decree directing plaintiff to pay certain money to defendant for her support and to enable her to defend the suit.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

The business for the week has been fairly good, various merchants reporting actively in their several lines of trade. In monetary affairs there is nothing of special interest to report, nor is there any change in the rates of money. In New York yesterday money on call was easy, ranging from 1 1/2 to 2, last loan at 2, and closing at 2. Prime mercantile paper 3 1/2.

In Baltimore money ruled easy at 4 per cent. on call. Transactions in Virginia securities comprised sales of $22,500 new 3s at 73 1/2, 74 and 74 1/2, and $1,050 coupon certificates at 25. Bonds of roads in the Richmond and Danville series were inactive, but fairly steady as to prices.

NEW YORK, July 22.—First prices in the stock market this morning were generally slightly higher than those of last evening and the further appreciation was on a small but well distributed business. The market continued to advance slowly and at 11 o'clock was quiet but firm to strong at the highest prices reached.

BALTIMORE, July 22.—Virginia consols —; bid; do 10-40s 36; do 3s 73 1/2 74 1/2 bid.
